

NDIS Code of Conduct

For all NDIS Providers and Workers

My rights, My decisions

You have rights. Providers and workers need to listen to you and respect your choices.

Respect my privacy

Providers and workers should respect your personal space and not share information about you unless you say they can.

Earn my trust

Providers and workers should tell you the truth and follow the NDIS rules.

Support me safely and well

Providers and workers should do their job safely and well.

Be responsive

Providers and workers should act quickly if they see things that are not right or safe.

Keep me safe from abuse and neglect

Providers and workers are not allowed to hurt you. They must protect you from harm. They must not do anything sexual to you or in front of you.
